Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. JAMES CONLEY HUTTO

Miss Brenda Lester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lester of Hope and James Conley Hutto, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hutto, of North Little Rock were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at the Parkview Baptist Church in North Little Rock.

Rev. Sherman Harmon officiated under an archway of white stephanotis and greenery and a white satin prayer bench. Wedding music was presented by Julia Andros, organist and Patsy Chastain, soloist.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white satin with front panel of overlaid lace and the chapel train of chantilly lace was attached midwaist with a satin bow. The sleeves and collar were made of lace. Her floor length veil of bridal illusion fell from a satin bow with bridal brail flowers.

She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of three white orchids with stephanotis and white satin love knots entwined. She wore the traditional something old, new, borrowed, and blue with a sixpence in her shoe.

Miss Meda Ann Hutto, sister of the groom was maid of honor. She wore a blue A-line dress fashioned along the line of the bride. Miss Susan Sinyard of Hope was junior bridesmaid and her dress was identical to the maid of honor. Both carried red rosebuds with a candle in the center.

The best man was Tommy Duke. Candle lighters were Donnie and Allen Hollis, nephews of the bride and Jerry Hutto, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother was attired in a coral knit dress and the groom's mother wore a light blue dress of lace. They both wore corsages of white feathered carnations.

A reception at the church followed the wedding.

The couple will be at home in Little Rock where both are employed.

MATURITY IS "THINKING FIRST"

Dear Helen: Luckily I was caught the first time I shoplifted. I grew up a lot, sitting in jail for ten hours. Besides hurting myself, I hurt my family.

You see, my Dad is a police officer. I got six months probation and it wasn't easy because one of the many rules was that I couldn't see my best friend during that time.

Now it's over, and I'm in college, majoring in law enforcement. I want to go into juvenile work, mainly because of what I learned through experience. I guess kids have to learn for themselves, the hard way, but if they'd just "think first" about what might happen, they'd avoid a lot of trouble. For example, if you run away or do something else that lands you in juvy, you have a record, and that makes it darn tough later on when you need a job or want to go to college.

— REFORMED FIRST

Dear Helen: My girlfriend and I invited two boys to a Rainbow Girl dance. Now we find we'd each rather go with the other's date. We can't very well tell them we want to switch. What do we do?—SECOND THOUGHTS

Dear S.T.: Say nothing, but trade dances a lot. On the next dates, the fellas may solve the problem for you.—H.

Dear Helen: I swear it: All I ever did was listen to this dame's problems. Now her husband is after me. I hope he only beats me up because if he divorces her, she'll expect me to take his place!

Between college classes, I works at a supermarket. Sally works there, too. She'd bring lunch for us and tell me about her marriage troubles. One day she said she was in love with another man and asked me what she should do. Like a fool I said, "If you're not happy, tell your husband you want a divorce because there's someone else."

She did it and was only then I found out the "someone else" was me! She figured I knew. She says her husband has a very bad temper but I can probably talk him around. I pointed out her mistake but I guess she's got a one-track mind. She thinks I'm only being noble because I don't want to break up a marriage. I don't want to get my head broken in. How do I soften the blow and protect myself from a determined gal?—REGRETFUL LISTENER

Dear Listener: I'd suggest that if the husband demands a meeting you take a friend along to back up your story. Fast talking may save you lumps, and fast footwork will keep you single—like a quick move to another job across town.—H.

Dear Helen: I read so many letters from teens who say they hate their mothers. I wonder how they'd feel if they learned this "despised person" wouldn't be around much longer?

My mother is the most wonderful and loved person I know. I'm glad I appreciated her for my 19 years of life for, you see, she is dying of cancer.—FEELING SO HELPLESS

Bucks Slowly Sinking in the West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NEW ORLEANS — The Milwaukee Bucks are slowly sinking in the West — but, hold on — here comes a life preserver from the East.

The Bucks' Eastern Division-leading Indiana in a cold first half and rolled to a 120-108 victory Monday night to remain in contention for a playoff spot in the American Basketball Association's West Division race.

New Orleans' victory boosted the last-place Bucks to within one game of Dallas and Los Angeles, tied for fourth.

In the night's only other contest, Carolina stopped Kentucky 60-41.

New Orleans sprinted to a 57-33 halftime lead and built the margin to 27 points early in the third quarter before Indiana started rolling.

Roger Brown, who led Indiana with 28 points, helped a Pacer comeback that closed the margin to 88-85 with eight minutes remaining in the fourth quarter.

But Jimmy Jones, who scored a game-high 37 points and Steve Jones and Gerald Covin, who pitched in 26 points apiece, held off Indiana in the closing minutes.

Two records fell in the Kentucky-Carolina game at Louisville—the ABA attendance mark and least amount of points scored by a team in a period. A crowd of 17,878 was on hand and Carolina could only manage eight points in the final stanza.

Carolina led all the way, at one time going ahead of Kentucky 72-53 late in the third quarter. Kentucky battled back in the fourth period and came to within two points at 81-79 with 1:52 left.

In the last quarter, the Cougars missed nine shots and made eight turnovers before scoring.

Doug Moe led the winners with 18 points and Darel Casperson was Kentucky's high man with 19.

Pilot Road to Milwaukee Much Longer

By CHARLIE BAROUH
Associated Press Sports Writer
SEATTLE (AP) — The American League was faced with an intriguing section of its own constitution and the disquieting threat of antitrust legislation Monday as the winding judicial road from Seattle to Milwaukee suddenly seemed just a little longer.

The road the Seattle Pilots hoped to tread to Milwaukee was studded with legal rocks throughout a hearing in federal bankruptcy court. Then a boulder bounced down from the bar to stop the day's travel altogether.

And probably more important to baseball in the long run was the possible landslide started when Washington's two powerful democratic senators—Henry M. Jackson and Warren G. Magnuson—announced they would sponsor legislation putting baseball under antitrust laws. Rep. Brock Adams, D-Wash., was to sponsor similar legislation in the House.

The senators said the antitrust action wouldn't have any bearing on the Seattle-Milwaukee situation, "but rather could apply only against the American League in future actions."

"We'll probably introduce the legislation the first of next week, after the Easter recess," Jackson said. "I don't want to go into too much detail, but it would unequivocally put baseball under antitrust legislation."

He admitted that getting such legislation would be tough, "but I'm a realist and expected a hard fight. We've been assured of a hearing date," he added.

Bankruptcy referee Sidney C. Vollin's comment in the Seattle hearing came in his usual quiet, calm tone, but the impact seemed to change the whole mood of the proceedings.

"I must confess I'm intrigued by this section in your constitution about proceedings in bankruptcy court," Vollin told the American League attorneys.

That section of the constitution was brought up by William Dwyer, special assistant Washington state attorney general. Dwyer had held his peace throughout the day because he said he didn't want to prejudice the $25 million damage-antitrust suit that would follow a Pilot move.

But when it came time for the specific issue — to show cause why the club shouldn't be sold to the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club, Inc. — Dwyer sprang to life and began picking at the league constitution.

Dwyer argued in his closing statement that under baseball law the league takes over any franchise as soon as it enters a bankruptcy court. He said that being the case the club could hardly say it couldn't meet its debts because the American League wasn't in financial trouble.

Vollin then asked Dwyer if under that same constitution the league wasn't free to sell the club anyway. Dwyer said no, not if the constitution was taken as a whole and especially in the light of league promises to keep the club in Seattle for the 1970 season and underwrite its expenses.

With that, league attorneys popped up and declared the league never committed itself to operate the club in Seattle for the season.

However, Vollin let the matter hang in the new uncertainty and recessed the hearing until Tuesday morning. He said he wanted to think about the constitutional question and added that there were other matters still to be discussed.

Those matters included the late arrival on the judicial scene of attorneys for Seattleite Fred Ruge, who wanted to make a pitch for the club. Another was something that riddled the day's proceedings.

An attorney for the Pilots' radio network argued that a $212,500 contract gave Golden West Broadcasters, Inc., veto power over any move, or else the club's radio rights in Milwaukee. He added that Golden West would settle for the contract money.

Vollin had another surprise in store for the Pilots, Milwaukee interests and the league. He exploded the news on the Pilots that as far as he was concerned there was no concrete offer from the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club, Inc.

Elwin J. Zarwell, Milwaukee attorney, was at the hearing for the Brewers, but said he had no instructions to represent them officially.

"I'll tell you candidly," Vollin told Zarwell, attorneys and club officials, "I have read the offer and I have some questions in

Professional Bowlers to Richest Match
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The richest stop on the Professional Bowlers Association tour begins Tuesday with $25,000 going to the winner of the sixth annual Firestone Tournament of Champions.

The top 48 pros clash during the five days of play. The final match of the $100,000 tournament will be televised over my mind about it. It would appear to me that if the offer is to be considered someone should be here to say what it intends so they can answer questions.

"As far as I'm concerned, as of now we have no offer before this court," Vollin added.

Allen May Start at Hot Corner
By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Reaming Richie Allen will be back where he started . . . almost . . . when Philadelphia and St. Louis meet today in exhibition baseball.

Allen, who began his stormy major league career as a Philadelphia third baseman seven years ago, will start at the hot corner for the Cardinals against his former mates, St. Louis skipper Red Schoendienst said Monday.

The $90,000 slugger, acquired from the Phillies in the Curt Flood trade last fall, has played first base and the outfield in recent years.

The Cards have been looking for a third baseman since Mike Shannon was scratched indefinitely with a kidney ailment two weeks ago. Joe Torre, a catcher-first baseman, has been playing the position for the past week.

"I'd prefer to have Allen play third, but I don't know whether he can throw well enough," Schoendienst said. Allen has trouble throwing hard because of an old hand injury.

While the Cards prepared to test Richie at third, the Boston Red Sox gave newly-acquired Gary Peters a firmer assignment—the pitching chore in their season opener at New York next Tuesday.

Manager Eddie Kasko named Peters to start against the Yankees after the veteran left-hander, obtained from the Chicago White Sox during the winter, tymed St. Louis for seven innings in a 2-0 victory. Peters, who scattered six hits, has not given up a run in 24 innings this spring.

Southpaw Fritz Peterson, vying for the Yankees' opening day starting job, had more success as a batter than a pitcher in Monday night's 13-6 romp over Los Angeles. Peterson, tagged for 11 hits and five runs in his seven-inning stint, drove in three New York runs with a triple and single.

Cleveland's Barry Moore and Minnesota's Stan Williams, picked up by those clubs in winter transactions, turned in strong mound performances.

Moore allowed two hits in seven innings as the Indians whipped Oakland 7-2, running the Athletics' losing streak to seven, and Williams fired 4 1-3 scoreless innings in the Twins' 4-1 verdict over the Phillies.

Left-hander Ken Holtzman posted the Chicago Cubs' first complete game of the spring, beating California 6-2 on a five-hitter, and Dick Dicker tossed eight innings, permitting five hits, as Kansas City topped Detroit by the same score.

Pittsburgh downed Cincinnati 5-4 on successive eighth inning homers by Ron Davis and Dave Cash, extending its winning string to six games.

The New York Mets, triggered by Cleon Jones' tie-breaking sixth inning homer, subdued the White Sox 5-3 and San Diego slugged Seattle 8-6 on two-run wallop by Tommy Dean, Nate Colbert and Chris Cannizzaro.

Rico Carty delivered three runs with a double and homer while Tony Gonzalez stroked three singles and a sacrifice fly in Atlanta's 6-2 victory over Montreal.

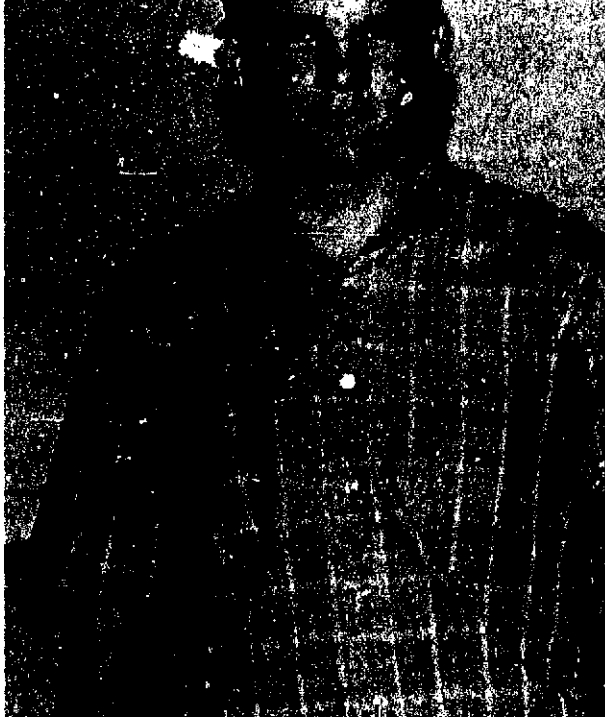

In a straight swap, San Diego dealt right-hander Tommie Sisk, 2-13 last season, to the White Sox for southpaw Jerry Nymann, who divided eight decisions with Chicago in 1969.

ABC Sat. April 4, at 3:30 p.m. EST.
Jim Godman of Elkhart, Ind., last year's champion, returns but will face stiff challenges from newcomers, including the tour's leading money winner this year, George Pappas.

Hodges Warns Mets This Is a New Year
By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — "This is a new year and we accept it. We are faced with today, not what happened yesterday."

This is Gil Hodges' way of telling the New York Mets that the amazins of 1969 can't afford to rest on their fat World Series checks in 1970.

The Mets have not been looking exactly like world champs this spring. But then, neither has anybody else in Florida. They win a few, lose few and go about the job of getting ready to prove they can do it again, starting next Tuesday.

Some observers profess to see the Mets on the same light as the 1950 Philadelphia Phillies Whiz Kids, who turned out to be one-time wonders and dropped to fifth place after their pennant year.

Others think this Met club, with its solid base of pitching strength, will be contenders for years.

"The boys are going about their work just like every other spring," said Manager Hodges. "They know what they accomplished last year but they won't let that get in the way of this year."

"They are young people and I see no chance of complacency sitting in. There is plenty of room for improvement and I think they all know it."

"I can sense a different attitude. They are more confident within themselves. They feel they are good. People talk about the Chicago Cubs losing it last year."

"I don't go along. These boys won it and I think we should be a contending club. There is no reason why we can't do it again."

"Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburgh all have a chance to win it. Our chance is as good as anyone else."

Except for the addition of Joe Foy at third base, this is largely the same ball club that came from 9-1 games back on Aug. 13 and won the National League East by eight games.

Everybody knows, of course, that they won the pennant play-offs from Atlanta in three straight and then knocked off the favored Baltimore Orioles in the World Series.

In addition to Foy, the only new faces probably will be Ray Sadecki, a left-handed starter or long relief man, Dave Marshall, an extra outfielder who has been fighting for a job, and catcher Randy Bobb, obtained from the Cubs for J.C. Martin.

Ed Kranepool, having a fine spring, and Donn Clendenon will platoon at first. Ken Boswell will be at second, Bud Harrelson at short and Foy at third.

Tim Lincecum, a 19-year-old rookie flash, had an excellent spring at short but probably needs another year before he is ready to take over.

Al Weis, who missed most of the spring due to a broken finger, and Wayne Garrett are the likely reserves.

Cleon Jones, hampered by a pulled muscle early, has been bombing the fences. Tommie Agee will be in center and Ron Swoboda and Art Shamsky will split the work in right field. Marshall and Rod Gaspar competed for the fifth job.

Jerry Grote again will be the No. 1 catcher. Hodges probably will carry three catchers with Duffy Dyer and Bobb, the new acquisition in reserve.

Despite the circus catches in the series and the home run heroics of Clendenon, the real strength of the club is the 1-2 pitching punch of 25-game winner Tom Seaver and Jerry Koosman, who has had a spectacular spring.

Gary Gentry is the third starter. The fourth and fifth starter will be picked from Nolan Ryan, who has looked good, Jim McAndrew, Don Cardwell and Sadecki. The two who don't make it as starters will be long relief men.

In the bullpen there is the same combination of Tug McGraw, Roy Taylor and Cal Koone.

"Offense is the area where we can improve the most," said Hodges.

"Agee, Jones, Shamsky and Boswell did a job but there is room for improvement in Swoboda, Kranepool, Harrelson and Grote. Foy ought to help us with his bat and also with his speed."

"This has been our best camp. Young people like Foll, Mike Jorgensen, Ken Singleton, Leroy Stanton and Jon Matlack have shown great improvement. We know we can count on them for the future."

"If they're all shooting at us, it's all right with us. They weren't throwing any softies at us last year when we beat fellows like Fergy Jenkins, Bob Gibson, Phil Niekro and Steve Carlton. We'll be ready."

Razorbacks Start Spring Training

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks began spring football practice here today searching for replacements for nine starters from last year's 9-1 team.

Practice sessions are scheduled for Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. There will be a Red-White intrasquad game April 25 at Little Rock and spring practice will end with a Red-White game May 2 at Fayetteville.

The Razorbacks lost All-American center Rodney Brand, guard Jerry Dossey, fullback Bruce Maxwell and tackle Bob Stankovich off last year's offensive team. The Arkansas defense, which was one of the best in the nation, will have to replace end Gordon McNulty, middle linebacker Cliff Powell, outside linebacker Lynn Garner, defensive halfback Terry Stewart and safety Dennis Berner.

The Razorbacks open the 1970 season Sept. 12 against Stanford University at Little Rock.

Bears Defeat Rose Hill 81 to 75

The Spring Hill Bears defeated Rose Hill of Texarkana 81 to 75 last night in the men's independent tournament at Spring Hill. Cox was high for Spring Hill with 26. Downs had 20. For Rose Hill Fisher scored 32.

In the second game Magnolia won over Blevins 105 to 71. Tucker tossed in 38 for Magnolia, George had 23. Blevins' Smith had 21 and Gorrom 8.

Two games are on tap for tonight (Tuesday) starting at 7 o'clock. Monty's plays Amity and Prescott goes against the Razorbacks of Texarkana.

Sikes Picks Up $4,800 at Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — R. H. Sikes of Springdale, Ark., won $4,800 in the $200,000 National Airlines' Open Golf Tournament here Sunday after finishing five strokes behind tournament winner, Lee Trevino.

Sikes shot 72 Sunday for a four-day total of 279.

Miller Barber of Texarkana, Tex., shot a 72 Sunday for a total of 283 and $1,983.

Richard Crawford of Bella Vista, Ark., finished with 74, a total of 290 and $381.

Oakland Has Added Some Veterans

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — The Oakland Athletics have added some proven veterans to their young roster, hoping to get past the one final hurdle that seems to be standing between them and the American League's Western Division pennant—the Minnesota Twins.

"Minnesota is the team to beat," says Athletics' Manager John McNamara, who took over from Hank Bauer late last season. "They made a couple of trades and they feel they helped themselves."

But the Twins, who won the pennant last year, didn't out-trade the second-place A's, who scattered players to all corners of the country in their quest for more hitting and some relief pitching.

Outfielder Felipe Alou, first-baseman Don Mincher, catcher
Frank Fernandez and pitchers
Al Downing, Diego Segui, Jim
"Mudcat" Grant and Juan Pizarro have all been added to the A's roster along with veteran utility infielder Ray Oyler.

Alou figures to start in the outfield along with Reggie Jackson, who led the majors with 47 home runs last year, and Rick Monday, who has shown signs this spring of blossoming into the excellent hitter the A's think he will be one day.

Mincher will start at first and the rest of the infield will be the same as last season. Dick Green is set at second, Bert Campaneris at shortstop and Sal Bando at third.

The A's have plenty of pinch-hitting help from reserves Tito Francona, Joe Rudi, Tommy

Orr Continues to Increase Hockey Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Boston's Bobby Orr continues to increase his lead in National Hockey

League scoring but it appears unlikely that he will better the point record of 188 set last season by teammate Phil Esposito.

Orr, with 31 goals and 83 assists, had 114 points through Sunday's games, NHL statistics showed today.

Orr's margin over Esposito,
the current runner-up, is 20 points. The widest margin any scoring champ ever had at the end of the season was 24 by Detroit's Gordie Howe over teammate Ted Lindsay in 1952-53.

Reynolds and Jose Tartabull, Oiler and rookie Jim Driscoll are likely to be the backup men in the infield.

Fernandez is counted on to provide some hitting punch in the catching slot, something the A's woefully lacked last year, though McNamara is hoping young Dave Duncan will also develop as a hitting catcher.

John "Blue Moon" Odom,
Chuck Dobson and Jim Hunter
starting pitchers with Jim Roland, and Downing fighting for the remaining spots.

With the addition of Segui and Pizarro and the presence of Fred Talbot, Paul Lindblad, Ed
Sprague and Roberto Rodriguez, Oakland is in good shape in the bullpen.

Avery Has the Edge But Not the Looks

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — In any square off between Avery Brundage and Suzy Chaffee, you have to give Avery a distance edge in weight and reach. But there his physical advantage ends.

Suzy is prettier. She has a mane of gold hair, a 34-22-34 figure and a deep-seated conviction on Avery's interpretation of amateurism.

Also she is steaming mad.

"Who does Mr. Brundage think invented amateurism—God?" the 23-year-old Olympic skilling star fumed today, during an infrequent stop in her whirlwind schedule of acting, writing, designing and modeling.

"Amateurism is not a religion.
It's not an edict of God. It was started in Britain a couple of hundred years ago. A group of wealthy, tuffy lords got together and decided it would be terribly noted if they competed without prizes or remuneration."

"Since then every body has been fainted with the same notion that there is something sacred about amateurism. It is hypoetical and it is unrealistic."

"The very name 'Olympics' has a beautiful connotation. It should mean the best in any sport. But it doesn't. A bunch of old fuddy-duddies, like Mr.
Brundage, are ruining it."

"The Olympics should be open. The man or woman who can run the fastest, throw the farthest, jump the highest, ski the best—no matter what his occupation or financial status—should wear the gold medal."

Suzy's latest ire has been fired by the impending showdown between Brundage's International Olympic Committee and the International Ski Federation on the future of Alpine skilling in the Olympic Games.

Brundage, long a militant champion of purity in amateur sports, is threatening to throw Alpine skilling, the glamor event of the Winter Games, out of the program at Sapporo, Japan, in 1972 because of commercialism.

The bonds were approved by the electors of the District at the annual school election on March 10, 1970 and at said election a continuing annual building fund tax of 13 mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property of the District was voted for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds until paid in full. The bonds will be general obligations of the School District secured by the District's full faith, credit and resources. They will be primarily payable from said building fund tax, but in addition, the bonds will be secured by a pledge of all revenue that the District can legally pledge including the annual surplus derived each year from the building fund taxes previously voted for bonds now outstanding.

The surplus arising each year from the District's building fund taxes, after providing for principal and interest maturing that year and the next six months' interest on all the District's outstanding bonds, may be used by the District for calling bonds for payment prior to maturity or for other school purposes.

The assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property in the District, according to the 1969 assessment is $1,585,475.

The purchases may name the trustee and paying agent. All expenses of the issue, including the printing and trusteeing of the bonds and the fee of Smith, Williams, Friday & Bowen, Bond Counsel, Little Rock, Arkansas, upon whose approving opinion the bonds will be issued will be paid by T.J. Raney & Sons, Little Rock, Arkansas, the District's fiscal agent.

Neither supplemental nor dual coupons will be permitted but the purchases will have the privilege of converting the bonds to an issue bearing a lower rate or rates of interest with any conversion to be in accordance with the Universal Bond Values Tables and upon such terms that the District receive no less and pay no more than it would receive and pay if the bonds were not converted, with any conversion to be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the District and of the Commissioner of Education of the State of Arkansas. In addition, the following conversion conditions shall be applicable:

(1) The average maturities cannot be shortened by more than six months.

(2) The converted schedule shall contain not more than four rates of interest (not counting the same rate of interest that is repeated for different maturities); and

(3) The difference between the lowest rate of interest in the converted schedule and the rate bid must not be greater than 1 per cent.

The bonds will be callable for payment prior to maturity, at the option of the District, in whole or in part, in inverse numerical order at par and accrued interest as follows: from surplus proceeds of said building fund tax on any interest paying date; from funds from any source on any interest paying date on and after February 1, 1975.

No bid of less than par and accrued interest will be entertained. Only one rate of interest shall be bid at a time, and the award, if made, will be made to the bidder who bids the lowest rate of interest.

The bonds will be sold upon auction bids at 3:00 o'clock P.M. on the 21st day of April, 1970.

For further information address the undersigned, or T.J. Raney & Sons, Little Rock, Arkansas. GIVEN this 20 day of March 1970.

Some of our readers are kind enough to send us bridge hands from time to time. Most of these concern very unusual holdings, such as nine-card suits. While very interesting, these are not suitable for the column, since they don't occur often enough in actual play to enable us to tell how to bid them.

Today's hand, played at the Bremerton Bridge Club by Leonard Wisby of Silveroak, Wash., is perfect for our purposes. It teaches points in both bidding and play.

West gained nothing by his double of three spades and it gave North a chance to show that his club raise had been sound. With a doubtful raise, North would simply have passed the double.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Frequent Urination Is Natural with Aging

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q-In the last 10 years I have had to get up from two to seven times a night to urinate. What could cause this?

A-This may be a natural accompaniment of aging, especially in a person who is high strung. Such other causes as diabetes, bladder disease and an enlarged prostate usually cause an increased frequency of urination during the day as well as the night.

Q-My doctor says my bladder doesn't empty completely. What could cause this?

A-This may be caused by an obstruction or a disease of the nervous system. The obstruction may be a stricture of the urethra due to trauma or an infection, an enlarged prostate or a tumor of the bladder near its outlet. In any case, a thorough examination should be made by a urologist to determine the cause.

Q-Could prostate trouble be caused by emotional upsets?

A-No.

Q-I had my prostate removed in 1961. In the past six months I have had difficulty in urinating. Could my prostate enlargement have come back or could it be cancer?

A-When a part of the prostate is removed through the urethra instead of through the bladder, the benign enlargement may return. In spite of this possibility this is the operation of choice for most persons with a prostatic enlargement. Only your doctor can say whether the present enlargement is cancerous.

Q-In 1966 I had an operation for cancer of the prostate. I am taking Stilbestrol and my doctor says I must take it for the rest of my life. How will this drug help me? What are its side effects?

A-This hormone suppresses the growth of prostatic cancers and helps to prevent recurrence. The chief side effect is enlargement and or soreness of the breasts. This can usually be controlled by adjusting the dosage.

Q-How successful is cryotherapy for cancer of the prostate? Can it be used on an inoperable prostatic cancer?

A-The success of freezing or cryosurgery would depend on such factors as the size of the tumor and whether it had spread beyond the prostate. It could not be used to treat an inoperable cancer.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Equality With A Little Extra

In this country it is fairly easy and all too common-place for a complacent and careless majority to overlook and even forget the minorities, hence all the constitutional safeguards for their protection and the wide latitude accorded them when they decide to seek redress. In the case of the women, however, the renewal of their struggle for equal rights, a novel problem arises. Women are not a minority in this country. They make up 51 per cent of the population.

According to reliable statistics, they own or control the larger share of its wealth and, presumably, cash most of the checks. And, by tradition, at least, through the duty they inherit to rock the cradle they pick up also the power to rule the world.

What the nation confronts here, then, is something a little different—an oppressed majority, and not a silent majority either, which has at its command every instrument of social and political change. What else the ladies want, then, unless it is superiority, is hard to figure out.—Charleston (W. Va.) Daily Mail

Scotch
When you visit Scotland, don't say the inhabitants are Scotch. They don't like it. The Scots say they are Scottish. Their beverage is Scotch.

Whisky (the Irish, Canadian and American versions are spelled whiskey) has been a product of Scotland for a good while. Legend has it that the Irish—who else?—were the first distillers. The stuff was cooked up as a cure for sick mules. When Irish pagans passed over to Scotland in one of those check-board migrations that afflicted those islands, the concoction was fed to human beings instead of mules.

We learn this in a book, "Scotch Whisky: Its Past and Present." It may explain why mules today are often so contrary. They're on the wagon and don't like it.—Atlanta (Ga.) Journal

Retrogression?
Here we've been saying glibly that the present generation of young people is the brightest we've ever had. Then along comes educational scientists in Great Britain saying kids in 1914 were smarter.

They hasten to point out that they're speaking only of Great Britain. In a report comparing the marks scored by children half a century apart, the young people of 1914 scored significantly higher than today's pupils in every category. They averaged 100.3 in intelligence in 1914 against 99.5 in 1965.

Categories in which the 1914 students were better included reading accuracy, reading comprehension, spelling and arithmetic. Aha. How about space science and television? Or Driver Education? —Charlotte (N.C.) Observer

Cloudy Skies, Rain Is Outlook
Cloudy skies with scattered rain showers continued to be the weather outlook for Arkansas.

Skies were clear over most of the state early today, but clouds developed after sunrise, the Weather Bureau said. Clouds were to increase over the state today bringing some light rain by afternoon, the bureau said.

The bureau said that Wednesday would be cloudy with showers in the forecast. Highs Monday ranged from 42 at Harrison to 57 at El Dorado. Overnight lows were 33 at Fayetteville, 37 at Harrison, Jonesboro and Little Rock, 40 at Pine Bluff and El Dorado, 43 at Texarkana and 41 at Fort Smith.

Precipitation for the 24-hour period that ended at 7 a.m. today included .30 at Fayetteville.

Youth Held in Connection With Slaying

A 16-year-old Delight youth listed as Richard Neal Williams is being held in Hempstead County jail on open charges in connection with the early Monday slaying of a Nashville woman and a Delight man whose bodies were found beside a rural road in northwest Hempstead County in the Yancy area.

The dead were identified as Mrs. Lou Dean Brown Cassidy, 37, and Paul Parsons, 40, of Delight. Both were shot to death with a .22 cal. pistol an autopsy revealed. The bodies were found about 7 a.m. Mrs. Cassidy was the mother of seven children.

Sheriff Jimmie Griffin said Tuesday that no charge had been filed against the youth but probably would be late today or Wednesday. "We are still trying to put all the pieces together," the Sheriff said, indicating "we have two murders, auto theft, a possible kidnapping and rape case."

Williams was arrested at Mt. Pleasant, Texas after he fled from a service station without paying for gasoline. The car he was driving was registered in the name of Paul Parsons. He waived extradition rights and was returned to Hope.

Mrs. Cassidy's 12-year-old daughter, picked up at Maud, Texas, told officers she was forced to go with Williams and he wouldn't release her until they reached the Texas town, according to Bowie County Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Martin. The officer said the girl told him about the shootings.

Sheriff Griffin said the girl appeared to have been assaulted and remained in a hospital at Maud. She was expected to be released probably today.

Ruling Made on School Appraisal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — R. E. Baker, supervisor of schools of the Benton County School District, was informed Monday that a county taxing unit that does not petition for a property appraisal does not have to bear the expense of the appraisal if it gets the benefits.

Baker said assessment equalization by petition is being proposed by Benton County taxing units, including the public schools, cities and county government.

Baker asked the attorney general's office for a clarification of Act 351 of 1949 which says taxing units not joining in the petition can not be required to pay their pro rata share.

Cost of Meat Seems Headed for Another Round of Increases

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of meat for the dinner table may be heading for another round of increases similar to the price hikes that afflicted consumers last summer.

Government economists have a list of hedges in their outlook, but some concede the prospect of holding the price line on meat is bleak.

At any rate, the future is uncertain for housewives who already spend 30 cents of every food dollar on meat for their families.

The Agriculture Department sketched in this price background Monday: Total red meat production was down 4 per cent in February from a year ago. Beef gained slightly, but pork, the second favorite, dropped 12 per cent. The average price for all livestock in March was at a record high.

Pro-Chinese Element in North Vietnam Has Lost Another Battle

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

North Vietnam's Communists appear to have just gone through a political crisis over the party's leadership, and the outcome can have important meaning for all of Indochina.

The pro-Chinese element seems to be the loser and even to be threatened by a purge if it fails to submit. Le Duan, first secretary of the Lao Dong (workers) party, apparently is now the strongest figure among the heirs of Ho Chi Minh, and "first among equals" in the Hanoi leadership.

The prospect thus is for more leverage for the Soviet Union in the Yancy area.

MIG Is Shot Down by Navy Plane

SAIGON (AP) — A U.S. Navy fighter-bomber escorting a reconnaissance plane shot down a MIG21 over North Vietnam Saturday, the U.S. Command announced today.

A spokesman said it was the 11th North Vietnamese jet fighter shot down during the war but the first since Sept. 13, 1968.

The command said the Navy F4 Phantom jet and the unarmed reconnaissance plane, an RF4C Phantom equipped for photographic work, were flying over Thanh Hoa, 125 miles north of the Demilitarized Zone.

The spokesman said he did not know if the MIG21 fired on the U.S. planes. But he said the shooting down of the North Vietnamese plane was a "protective reaction to an enemy threat... an inherent right of self-defense."

Despite the halt in U.S. bombing of North Vietnam that went into effect Nov. 1, 1968, American planes have continued to fly reconnaissance missions over the North. Several have been shot down.

The U.S. Command says the reconnaissance planes are unarmed but are escorted by fighter-bombers to protect them against attack.

Arson Suspected at Center Fire

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — Forrest City Fire Chief Johnny Rice said Monday that arson is suspected in the fire that destroyed the Southside Civic Center, a Negro center, here last week.

About a fourth of the frame building was destroyed by fire last summer, and the building has not been repaired or used since that time.

School Group Named at El Dorado

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — A 13-member committee was appointed by the El Dorado School Board Monday night to attempt to solve a request by teachers in the El Dorado School District for more money for salaries and supplies.

The committee is to make an in depth study of the school district's financial situation and then recommend, by April 13, ways of raising the necessary funds.

Negro Backer of Carswell Stands Pat

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A black government official says he stands behind a letter he wrote favorable to G. Harrold Carswell's Supreme Court nomination, and denies the Justice Department pressured him into writing it.

Charles F. Wilson, deputy chief conciliator for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission since last fall, said in an interview "There has been no pressure, neither threats nor promises."

Wilson indicated that since he wrote the Feb. 5 letter, pressure on him had come from those opposing President Nixon's nomination of the Tallahassee, Fla., federal appeals court judge.

"Obviously, most of the people associated with me most of my life are very unhappy," he said. "But what I said in my letter are my views."

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., opened the controversy Monday with a charge that Justice officials had pressured Wilson into writing the letter.

Truck-Rail Mediators in Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal mediator has moved into negotiations between union and trucking industry officials in an effort to obtain a new wage agreement before the current contract covering 425,000 drivers expires at midnight.

The Teamsters union has not announced a strike call, but when there was no indication Monday that an agreement was near on the main issue—a federal mediator stepped in.

The industry, through its Trucking Employers Inc., is offering a wage and benefit hike of $1 an hour over three years. Teamsters are looking for $1.75 an hour boost in wages alone.

Meanwhile, Labor Secretary George P. Shultz Monday called in negotiators in the long railroad shopcraft union dispute to see if any progress was being made. Sources said there has been no change.

Three of four rail unions have agreed to an industry offer of a 68-cent hike in current wages of $3.60 an hour. The fourth union, Sheet Metal Workers, have turned down the offer.

Congress has forbidden the 45,000 members of the four unions from striking until April 11. Union leaders have warned that wildcat strikes could come at any time by members fed up after 15 months of talks.

Census Takers Start Work on April 1

Census takers who will visit every dwelling unit in the area during the 1970 Census of Population and Housing, which starts April 1, will be trained on March 30 and 31, District Manager, Bob Cockreham announced today.

The training sessions will be conducted by crew leaders. Emphasis will be placed on the importance of a systematic, thorough canvass of every dwelling unit during the census to insure a complete count. Classroom training will cover the proper manner of asking questions, use of the census questionnaire, census definitions, and map reading.

Rules Judge Has Right to Remove Defendants Who Are Disrespectful

U.S. Trying to End Strikes and Prevent Others Threatened

AP News Digest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The government pressed its crackdown against striking air controllers today, put a fresh wage offer before postal union negotiators and moved to head off possible disruptions in the trucking and railroad industries.

With the week-old "stick-in" work slowdown by controllers continuing to spread, the Federal Aviation Administration moved Monday to fire or suspend those who stay away from their posts.

At the same time, U.S. attorneys in a number of cities sought temporary restraining orders to end the strike that has thrown commercial aviation into a turmoil.

The list of absentee Monday increased to 522 out of a scheduled force of 1,668, according to the FAA. Those who continued to work were promised cash awards and special recognition in their personnel files.

Government and union negotiators kept talking today after the new proposal in the postal pay dispute. Postmaster General Winton M. Blount reported that President Nixon was "very hopeful" the negotiations would be quickly concluded.

No details of the new offer were disclosed but it came after Blount met with Nixon and received instructions. The talks began last week after a widespread wildcat strike by postal workers erupted.

There is a midnight contract expiration in the trucking industry but the Teamsters Union has not announced a strike call. A federal mediator stepped into the negotiations Monday when there was no indication that agreement on the key money issue was near.

AEA Wants to Take Over Tech Schools

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Education Association says the state's major vocational-technical efforts should be administered through the public high schools instead of the 11 existing post-secondary schools.

The association's Representative Assembly adopted a resolution March 14 recommending that all federal funds currently being used in the post-secondary schools be channeled to the public secondary schools to create "comprehensive school systems." The resolution said such a plan would provide vocational-technical training as well as a college preparatory program.

New Sharp Earthquake Hits Turkey

GEDIZ, Turkey (AP) — A sharp new earthquake struck this devastated region of western Turkey today, killing at least 24 more persons and causing more damage in several villages.

The new tremor shook Gediz, where rescue workers still were digging out the victims of an earthquake last Saturday which took an estimated 1,500 lives.

Villages around the half-flat-topped town were hard hit by the new shock this morning.

"The figure of 24 dead in the new tremor is only preliminary," said a relief official. By Monday night, soldiers and other rescue workers had dug 644 bodies from the rubble as a steady rain fell and after sheets shook the ground from time to time.
